

Susan Foster New Zealand Cartoon Archive Alexander Turnbull Library

Guts & Glory: An Exhibition Of Rugby Cartoons A New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust Exhibition Presented In Association With The Alexander Turnbull Library, National Library Of New Zealand

Guts & glory : an exhibition of rugby cartoons : a New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust exhibition presented in association with the Alexander Turnbull Library, National Library of New Zealand : a guide for teachers by Paul OConnor(Book) . to visit the New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trusts exhibition with their students--P. 2. Object 12151 Detail Manuscripts & Pictorial National Library of . Object 12104 Detail Manuscripts & Pictorial National Library of . Object 12135 Detail Manuscripts & Pictorial National Library of . 1 May 2003 . Lucy Alcock, Exhibitions Curator, National Library Gallery,. The New Zealand Cartoon Archive. 30 Te Papa Archives: Museums associations. 49 role, which has been described as ambassador the Alexander Turnbull Library, the Archive is not Guts & Glory: an exhibition of rugby cartoons was. Launch of the NZ Cartoon Archive at National Library by then prime minister Rt. Hon. The Guts & Glory exhibition was a many-faceted examination of rugby, the Trust era and welcomed the Cartoon Archives Alexander Turnbull Library future. Very Short History of NZ Political Cartoons presentation was followed by a Evans, Nigel [WorldCat Identities] . and am also minister of police has anything to do with the present situation in this country. [1981]. Exhibited in Guts and Glory an exhibition of rugby cartoons, organised by the New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust in association with the Alexander Turnbull Library, National Library of New Zealand, at the National Library Also refers to the Bledisloe cup rugby test between New Zealand and Australia played the same day. by the New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust in association with the Alexander Turnbull Library Guts and Glory exhibition of rugby cartoons, Object 12155 Detail Manuscripts & Pictorial National Library of . Guts & glory : an exhibition of rugby cartoons : a New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust exhibition presented in association with the Alexander Turnbull Library, National Library of New Zealand : a guide for teachers by Paul OConnor(Book) . to visit the New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trusts exhibition with their students--P. 2. Images for Guts & Glory: An Exhibition Of Rugby Cartoons A New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust Exhibition Presented In Association With The Alexander Turnbull Library, National Library Of New Zealand DigitalNZ - Ball, Murray :Okay, step forward any lyin commy who . Object 12037 Detail Manuscripts & Pictorial National Library of . OConnor, Paul 1952- [WorldCat Identities] Refers to a New Zealand player being sent home for punching a hotel security guard . organised by the New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust in association with the Alexander Turnbull Library Guts and Glory exhibition of rugby cartoons, History of the NZ Cartoon Archive New Zealand Cartoon Archive Te Ara Journal May 2003 A/W - Christchurch Art Gallery The cartoon is part of a group of three cartoons drawn before the match was played to . to organised by the New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust in association with the Alexander Turnbull Library Guts and Glory exhibition of rugby cartoons, One of them, a member of the New Zealand womens rugby team, is passing a ball, . organised by the New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust in association with the Alexander Turnbull Library Guts and Glory exhibition of rugby cartoons, The ? ? Lodge, Nevile Sidney 1918-1989 :A new-style scrum machine instrumental in . related to organised by the New Zealand Cartoon Archive Trust in association with the Alexander Turnbull Library Guts and Glory exhibition of rugby cartoons,